

Where Is God In Your Life?

Isa. 55:6-7

What can we find out from these verses about seeking God?

I. There is a time to seek after God – Vs 6

- Now is the acceptable time. 2 Cor. 6:2
- Now is the time to seek after God.
- Now is the time to put Him in the center of your life.
- We have a duty to seek after God. Zephaniah 2:3
 - The time for seeking is not fixed by our convenience
 - Man does not set the time for seeking God, but God sets it.
 - Seeking God is something that no one else can do for you.
 - The time for seeking God is fixed by God's invitation
 - If salvation were a matter of purchase, we might expect it to be dependent on our time.
 - It's not something that we can purchase. John 6:44
 - His invitation is there for all people to see. John 3:16; Luke 13:3,5; Rom. 10:9; Mark 16:16

II. In order to seek and find God, we must prepare ourselves to receive God's pardon – Vs 7

- There are a couple of things we see in this verse
 1. God's pardon is absolutely free and priceless.
 2. There are conditions which those who receive the grace are reasonably required to be in.

III. How do we prepare to accept God's pardon?

- There must be the putting away of all wrongdoing. 7a
- There must be a cleansing of thought and heart. 7b
- There must be a positive turning towards God. 7c
